GAZA CIVIL DEFENSE: 65 displaced people were recovered between dead and wounded in the Mawasi Khan Yunis massacre. Recovery operations were continuing.

GAZA CIVIL DEFENSE:

The Israeli airstrikes targeted a gathering of IDPs tents consisting of at least 20 inhabited tents in an area declared by the occupation as 'safe zones.'

The heavy strikes left three large craters.

A number of martyrs were buried in the ground, and ambulance crews and civil defense are facing great difficulty in retrieving martyrs amid the lack of capabilities and the lack of a light source.

Residents in the surrounding area panicked as they were sleeping when the strikes began.

The event is very difficult, and it is estimated that we are facing one of the most horrific massacres.

Rescue operations are ongoing.

The occupation has become emboldened to carry out such massacres in light of the complete silence of the institutions of the world regarding previous crimes.
